

The Seattle Times

Pacific NW Magazine

The Northwest's 20 best wines for under $20

Nov. 4, 2022 at 7:00 am | Updated Nov. 9, 2022 at 1:51 pm

7. The Miscreant Project 2018 The Right Bastard, Columbia Valley, $19: This second label for TruthTeller Winery takes no short cuts with its vineyard sources — Kiona on Red Mountain and Stillwater Creek along the Royal Slope. It's a merlot-led blend in the fashion of those from the Right Bank of Bordeaux, only this one comes with a jammy mouthfeel akin to blackberry, vanilla and dark plum.